ABOUT THE COURSE

Cambridge English Exam Preparation Centre at the University of Opole offers a 4-month B2 Intensive English Preparatory Course, which equips participants with knowledge and skills vital for the Cambridge B2 First exam (FCE) and/or application interviews to undergraduate and graduate full-time programmes in English at the University of Opole, as well as selection for the Erasmus+ programme. You will be able to develop your academic English through written as well as oral assessments, presentations and activities during classes conducted by native speakers of English and Polish. At the end of the course, 15 June 2024, you will have a chance to take the B2 First Exam in our Cambridge English Exam Preparatory Centre UO. The cost of the exam is not included in the price of the course.

STAY IN POLAND AND ACCOMMODATION

For those participants who require a visa in order to cross the border, the University issues a special visa invitation to be presented to the appropriate consul as well as confirmation of a place to stay for the duration of the course. The documents are prepared after we receive a confirmation of payment for the course. For the invitation to be issued, we require the participants to fill in this chart. The filled out chart should be sent to michal.podwysocki@uni.opole.pl The title of the message should read: B2 intensive English preparatory name, visa invitation, [name and surname of the participant].

The course fee does not include the cost of accommodation, however accommodation is available on the University campus (more details about the prices will be announced soon – in case of inquiries, please contact akademiki@uni.opole.pl). We offer accommodation in twin- and triple rooms, depending on the number of the course participants.
